Class Sponsors

Miss Gwen Ellis

Miss Helen Robinson

This year's senior class, amongst its many other prized possessions, boasts of its class sponsors. Miss Robinson not only is busy in her teaching of classes, but also finds time to assist our class in its meetings, and acts as advisor to the "Scroll" staff.

Even though Miss Ellis has just become a part of Howland, she has gained extraordinary popularity with the gang. She, too, has been very helpful in building constructive minds.

Our motto for this year is:

"WE HAVE CROSSED THE BAY; THE OCEAN LIES BEFORE US."

At the first senior class meeting, the yellow rose was chosen as our flower, with blue and gold, the class colors.

Remember When

Donny couldn't breathe because Mary Lee was scared.

June Druschel lost a fender from her car while driving through town.

Carol Hoffman and Paul Jones were caught looking in a jewelry store window.

Marcelyn Greenwood's folding chair folded up in band.

Bill Orwig lost his shoes in history class.

Corinne Noble's pet saying was "Dorcas, behave!"

Pat Keffalos was always making innocent remarks.

Paul Orr got a pocket full of water in Physics class.

Bud Brown and Louie Lushina were walking down Market Street one day and——?

Jimmy Holland and Max Wakefield both tried to drive the car.

Bob Pelton and Dot Ensall stayed back stage in the dark practicing (?) for the Junior play.

Bill Nelson gave a command performance on the radio.

Mary Ann Larese's favorite subject was "Jerry."

Alice Popowich and Pat Moran made the skating rink their foster home.

Sally Nelson had two meals to down at the Prom.

Bob Mackey's theme song was "I Don't Want To Get Well."

Bill Hess redecorated the Chemistry room.

James Browning's blush used to match his red hair.

Don Everett tried to play postman.

Betty Jane Smiley couldn't keep track of her books in bookkeeping.

Ed Chagnot's convertible used to give the taxi service competition.

Willard Wilson wasn't in his Willys.

Pat Durig played "Lady Macbeth."

Wanda Yeagley flew an airplane in English class and Miss Beck caught her.

Norma Lewis came down the stairs two at a time and fell.

Ronald Jones accidentally (?) hit Miss Ellis with a paper wad.

Betty Heilman and Coralie Bumgardner got sent to the office for talking.

Mary Mosko forgot to turn the iron off.

Mary Elizabeth Ingalls' long fingernails.

LaVerne Garner was asked to read in English class and she said, "I ain't got no book."

Jimmy Marshall's theme song was "My Gal Sal."

Chuck Turner was perfect in attendance.

Jane Keck always dropped her books.

Carol Burr used to blink those mascara eyelashes.

Nila Gardlock needed a porch for that swing.

Chet Alexander used to go to Cleveland on business (?).

Orba Jones' favorite expression was "Oh! You kid!"

Lois Shore's picture sat on Johnny Palette's desk, for inspiration.

Jimmy Bellando's theme song was "Shoe, Shoe, Baby."

Claude Pruitt's nickname was "Cootie."

Jack Tennant's "flivver" with collapsible tires and removable steering wheel.

Joanne Sayers' had to wash off all her artistic work from the walls.—Guess where?

Floyd Freer's hobby was nailing things to the floor with his "widdle hammer."

Mary Lou Waters was just a little drip.

Last Will and Testament

Farewell, dear old Howland! We seniors, before bidding our last adieu, have decided to will all the things we can't take with us, to you who must return come next "Sept." We hope they'll bring as much happiness to you as they have to us, and also help waste some of your study halls. Speaking of study halls, one of our dearest fans resides amongst the book-strewn shelves and autographed tables of the library. His name is "Herman," alias the "Moose," who sees all, knows all, but never says a word. If you ever get in bad with "A.O." or get an "F" on the Wednesday after a six-week's period go to Herman. Glance squarely into his glassy brown eyes, and slowly tell him your woes. If, after three minutes have gone by, you haven't broken into tears from his pathetic stare, there's always Mosquito Creek, where you can make a quick jump. Don't forget that old proverb: "There's always someone worse off than you," and who could have a nose as big as Herman? We hope that when you're through with him, you'll pass him on to the next.

Then there's always Herman's "galfriend," Mildred Mimeograph Machine. A rootin', tootin', temperamental femme who does her best to get the "Scoop" out on time; a lovable character, but one to beware when the deadline is passed. With her, beauty is only skin deep, but she must have her facials in "three and one" oil, at least once a month, to keep up her morale. Most kids have little trouble with "Mil," for it's very seldom that she gets sick, but oh the pity of it all when a bolt must be amputated, or the stomach pump has to be applied to withdraw excess paper, for her eyes are often bigger than her stomach. We seniors wish her lots more successful years.

Oh, yes, we mustn't forget to leave Mr. Hanson! Not that we wouldn't like to take him along to college, but who would sign your excuses (if ya have any?) His office goes along gratis, as a refuge for all those who like to stay out of classes. His radiant smile, and black curly hair (we can't understand why it's still black or curly, either one) are two of his outstanding features. If you see a character slouching in the shadows, ready to pounce on "class-skippers," fear not, for it's only "Hughie," and you can always talk him out of it. We love this chubby little man, so Please handle him with care.

Along with the chemistry room, we'd like to leave Mr. Husted, the paper wads on the ceiling, sulphur smell, all the test tubes (broken and unbroken), and the water faucets. If you don't know how to soak your fellow classmates, by placing your forefinger on the spout and turning on the water pressure full force, you won't have gained a thing from a course in chemistry or physics. We seniors offer free instruction!

As a last effort we leave Miss Beck's term papers . . . Miss Ellis' tests . . . Mr. Hanson's bookkeeping assignments . . . Mr. Beight's color chart . . . Mr. Husted's experiments . . . Mr. Heistand's coaching . . . Mr. Coe's baton . . . Miss Hebner's trig books . . . Mr. Griffin's scales . . . Miss Woodford's study halls . . . Miss Marto's tab releases . . . and Mr. Lemasters (how could we leave him out?)

In all seriousness, we members of the graduating "Class of 46" wish next year's seniors, and those to follow, much success in all their enterprises, and "scads" of film for cut pages which this year's Scroll lacks, due to priorities.

We Love You Dear Teachers

But Pardon These Features!

Mrs. Humason is a peach,
She races through the hall,
There is no one that she can't reach
To answer a telephone call.

Lemasters is our principal,
And though he's very new,
In all chaotic matters
He knows exactly what to do.

Huba, Huba, Huba, Griffin's back,
Our singing to improve.
Do, re, mi, fa, sol, la, ti,
He's really in the groove.

Mr. Coe has told us
To practice more and more.
We should follow his advice,
He really knows the score.

When it comes to Government,
Miss Ellis is quite a hand.
At teaching us she has not failed,
We think she's simply grand.

Even though Miss Hebner
Knows her Trig and Math,
Her students often lead her
From the beaten path.

Miss Robinson's Biology
Contains much information;
Her stories of plant and animal life
Fill us with much elation.

Bruises, cuts, and scratches,
Broken ankles, too.
Just ask our new nurse,
She'll know what's wrong with you.

Miss Leisure's Business English Class
Is her pride and joy.
They're quiet while she's in the room
But when she's out—Oh, Boy!

We all like Mr. Heistand
Because he is our coach,
And we think his coaching
Is far beyond reproach.

Notation found on Mr. Husted's memo pad:

Two's a couple,
Three's a crowd,
Four on an experiment
Is not allowed.

Mrs. Husher's very nice
And she teaches gym.
It keeps us in condition
And also makes us slim.

Good ole standby Hughie Hanson
Has helped our Scroll along.
Who knows how he has stood it?
But then he'll have to put up with the Juniors next year—
(We know this rhyme's wrong).

"Itchy" is his nickname,
To art class his students go;
Paul Beight can sling a paint brush
Like no one else we know.

"Aw shad up! you bunch a yaps,"
Sounds Miss Woodford's yell.
"It would be so nice if we Could have a quiet spell."

We like Mrs. Johnson
For a substitute
Because she has such winning ways,
A friendly smile to boot.

Miss Newey teaches History,
And all her pupils say
To them it is a mystery
(It's always been that way).

In the past year he has signed
Excuses by the score,
But Mr. Wohlgamuth's prepared
For many, many more.

If you'd like to learn to clean,
Bake and sew and cook,
Just consult Miss Norma Bane;
She learned it from a book.

At teaching typing to her class
Miss Marto is just tops.
And they must know—if they would pass—
Shift Keys from Margin Stops.

She teaches Latin I and II,
Betty Yoho's her cognomen.
Her Phi Beta Kappa key shows
She really knows her Roman.

we just ain't got no Grammar,
we got no need for none.
miss betty beck think different,
so, Quick, she learn us some?

Junior Play

Seated: Nancy Dorrance, Bill Latham, Rolland Shafer, Louise Noble, Bill Root, Bettenell Snyder.

Standing: Marilyn Budd, Shirley Buechling, Bob Manley, Martha Hetz, Mike Prokop, John Ingalls.

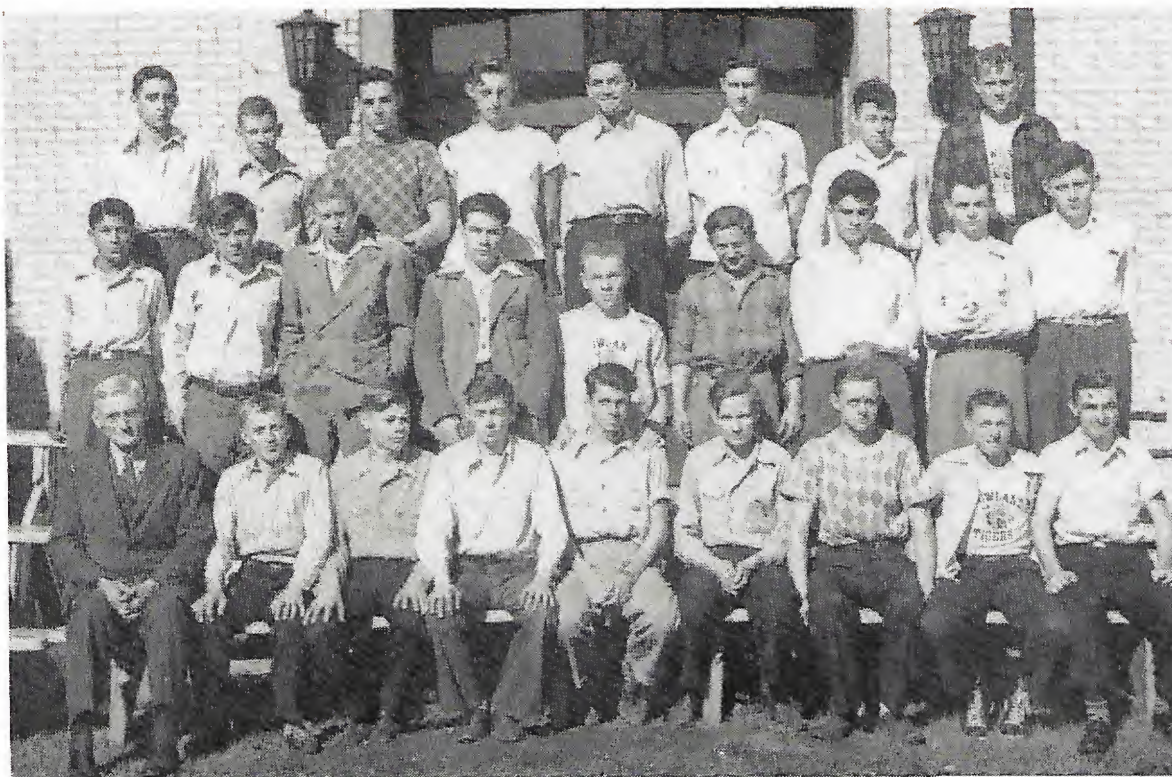

This year the graduating class of 1947 presented a three act play entitled "GIRL SHY." The plot was centered around Tom Arsdale, played so convincingly by Rolland Shafer.

A part of the play's success may well be attributed to its directors, the Misses Gwen Ellis and Lillian Newey, with Mr. Paul Beight, Jr., as makeup artist.

Graduation Day
May 23, 1946

DEAR FROSH:

Four long years—not two or three—but four, stare you in the face. Gee, but the good memories that will run through your craniums when you become senile seniors like us! We were frosh once—we remember! Nothing big had hit good old Howland 'till we threw our freshman class party. Guess we'll always remember the stag line holding up the juke box, the swoon crooning of "The Voice," and "T. D.'s" hot jive. That was the year we got to sit in the balcony for assemblies, went to the library for study hall, and attended the Activities Banquet. Big stuff! You'll see. It's your turn now.

Then, zing! You'll be a sophomore in nothing flat. And you'll never forget that year. You don't forget being shoved under a cold shower, rolled down two flights of steps, stuffed in a locker and hung up by the seat of your pants. But that's the price you pay for the privilege of rubbing elbows with us seniors. We went through it, and look at the character we've developed! No greater senior class anywhere.

Most of us got to be juniors and you should stand a pretty fair chance if you all work together. And it's worth it 'cause this is really the year that starts things popping. That sixteenth birthday makes a lot of difference. Not only are you eligible for the prom, but you'll be picking Her up in the family car—providing the car, your life and Her life are insured. And the classes you get out of! We coulda' been decorating the Waldorf-Astoria back in '42—we had a week's vacation from classes and Papa Hanson never balked once. That was a darn good prom!

We didn't last long as juniors. We were designed for better living. So just nine months ago we took the old place by storm and it'll never be run better. We thought of abandoning classes—we had so many responsibilities. Special class meetings, graduation pictures, final exams, college entrance applications, appointments to meet our future bosses—yes, we hardly had time to think, not to mention time to study.

We were swept along by the cyclone we created and all too suddenly here we are graduating. Between writing thank-you's for graduation presents and parading around in our caps and gowns, we've found time to reflect on our last years at Howland. Graduating means leaving our "big shot" position in school to take our little position in the world. Here we may be "a frog in a little puddle," but there we'll be like a "grain of sand on the seashore." Today we look at the little first graders and query, "Gosh! Were we ever that small?" Unbelievable as it may seem, we were. We sat in the same small desks, wrote in the same painstaking manner and had the same awe-struck look in our eyes in the presence of older students. We played the same practical jokes and carry splinters from the very same paddles. Many a teacher will never forget the chewing gum and thumbtacks that mysteriously found their way to the seat of her chair. Then we spy a student from junior high and say to ourselves, "Wonder if we ever acted like that?" To be sure, we did. With similar long arms and spindly legs we blundered about in the same awkward way. It took approximately four years for those long arms to turn into "Armstrong heaters," and those spindly legs to evoke whistles instead of laughs.

We remember that first big day in the band, chorus, or club and that feeling of belonging to the "gang." We have profited from it, and hope you will too—by learning to work together.

So we put away our limp handkerchiefs, and climb into our lifeboats, leaving you to struggle alone in a sea of pencil-marked desks and study-worn (?) books. Four years from now we'll compare notes. Good luck, Frosh.

The nineteen forty-five, forty-six school term ushered in the second successful year of Student Senate. Its members are elected by popular vote, and the president of the senior class is automatically chairman. Its duty is to gain more discipline by self-government.

HOWLAND

TIGERS

Cheer Leaders

Gloria Thompson, Betty Hake, Martha Kostyshak, Donna Oaks

Howland takes pride in its cheerleaders. The basketball season would have been most incomplete had it lacked the spirit of these four girls. Many new cheers have been introduced by this "foursome."

Basketball . . . Varsity

Absent: Bud Brown.

The team started out slowly, but has improved steadily under the close guidance of Mr. Hiestand, the new coach. The team has only one ex-varsity man, Louis Lushina. This year the varsity has proved itself as being one of the most successful teams Howland has ever had, by becoming TIA champs of 1945-'46.

Basketball . . . Reserves

1st Row: Edward Thomas, Willie Scott, Kenny Pelton, Donald Hake, Harold Keefner, Glen Swindler, Earl Stiver, Bobby Lott.

2nd Row: Merlin Valot, Harvey Burrows, Wilber Palette, Mr. Hiestand, Coach, Arthur Kovoc, Bill Seekins, Bobby Nelson.

These boys are a coming team. They have gone undefeated so far this season. The team is made up of freshman to juniors. Mr. Heistand is proud of the boys for they are a worthy contribution to the success of basketball at Howland. This team is expected to go a long ways in its tournament again this year. They have won this tournament for the last two years.

Boy's Baseball

- 1st Row: Max Wakefield, Bill Hess, Allen Heilman, Kenny Vesper, Arthur Kovacs, Jimmy Holland, Bill Root.
- 2nd Row: Red Shaffer, Paul Orr, Bud Brown, Louis Lushina, Edward Chagnot, Mike Prokop, Bill Latham.
- 3rd Row: Willis Scott, Bill Steinbaugh, Harvey Burrows, Robert Pelton, Mr. Hiestand, Kenny Cordell, Edward Thomas, Sammy Hernandez.
- Absent: Bill Nelson.

Howland had a good baseball season, highlighted by victories over Lordstown, Burg, Braceville, Champion and Vienna. They suffered defeats at the hands of Mineral Ridge and Leavittsburg. The season was marred by rain. The Lordstown, Champion and Mineral Ridge games were played in a continual downpour.

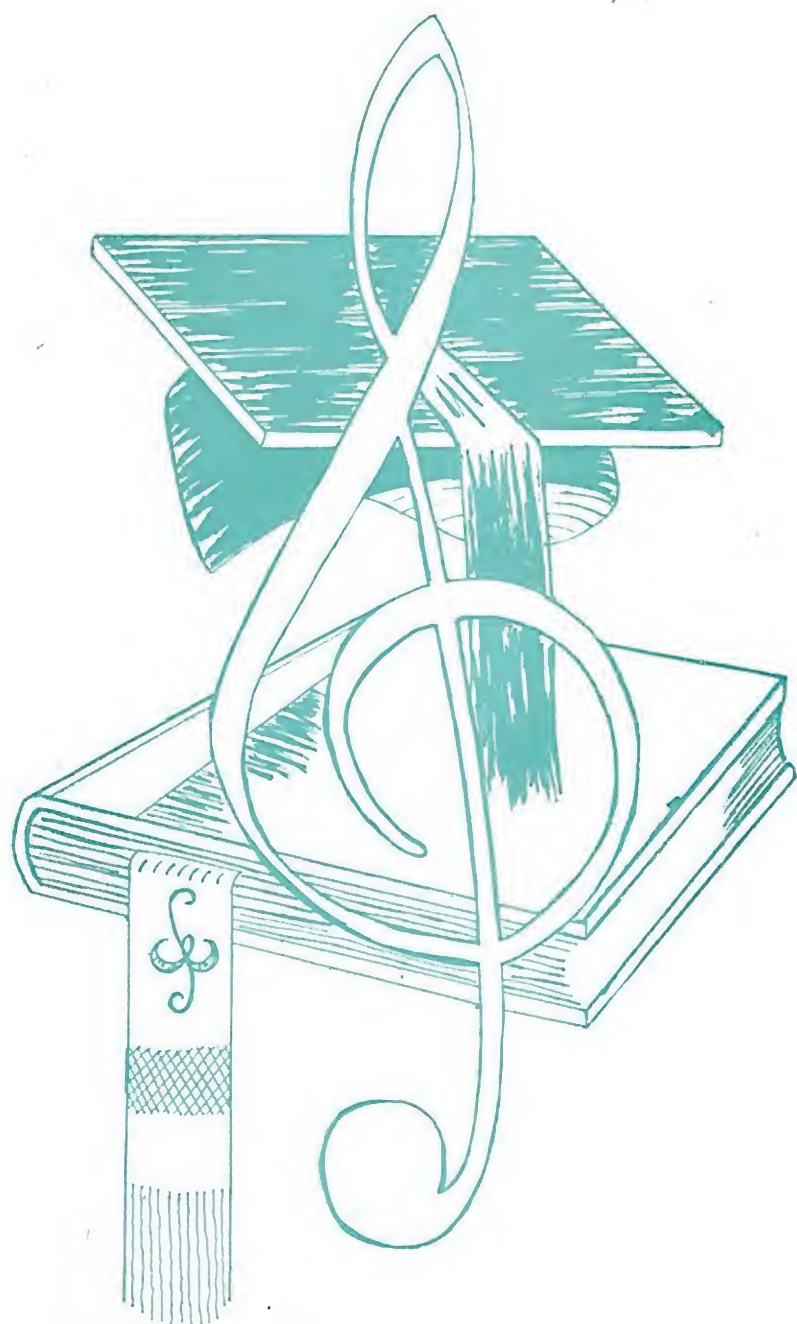

Girl's Baseball

1st Row: Arlene Schick, Carol Mansell, Mrs. Husher, Sally Nelson, Beatrice Gillette.

2nd Row: Alma Somlitz, Gloria Thomson, Pat Moran, Agnes Lushina, Hazel Whitman, Elizabeth Johnson.

3rd Row: Mildred Cordell, Jane Bolin, Betty Ostrander, Norma Clark, Macil Brown, Marion Steinbeck.

This was a first year sport at Howland, coached by Mrs. Husher. The team was green and young but had a surprisingly good season considering the experience that the other teams had over them. They won over Southington and Champion while bowing to Lordstown, Leavittsburg and Braceville. We expect great things from this team in the future.

Band

4th Row: Betty Cerbus, Mr. Coe, director, Carol Mansell, Dick Bower, Orba Jones, Shirley Might.

Handwritten flourish or signature.
